The agency having custody of the plaintiff shall forward these payments each time the Plaintiff's account exceeds $10, until the filing fee of $350 is paid in full. 08/03/2011		TEXT ORDER by Magistrate Judge Byron Cudmore: Before the Court is Plaintiff's Petition for Emergency Order 104 (Petition). The Court takes the matter under advisement, but notes that Shehadeh has not alleged that he has suffered actual prejudice in this case because of the actions of the Illinois Department of Corrections Facility in which he is incarcerated (Facility). See Ortloff v. U.S. , 335 F.3d 652, 656 (7th Cir. 2003). Plaintiff's motion is prospective in nature. The Clerk is directed to send Plaintiff with this Text Order an extra copy of this Text Order and the Petition. The Plaintiff is directed to serve the extra copies of the Petition and Text Order on the Warden or Assistant Warden at the Facility. The Court directs the Facility to respond to the Petition by August 31, 2011. Entered by Magistrate Judge

08/17/2011		TEXT ORDER by Magistrate Judge Byron Cudmore: Plaintiff's Motion for Leave to File Amended Petition for Emergency Order 108 (Motion for Leave) and Petition for Emergency Order 104 are DENIED as moot. Plaintiff moved for emergency relief because the Illinois correctional institution in which he is incarcerated was refusing to sell him postage and supplies necessary to file matters in court. The Motion for Leave states that he now can again purchase necessary postage and supplies. The motions are, thus, moot. Plaintiff also asserts he suffered an injury because he was late filing a notice of appeal in a case in state court. He may want to seek leave to file a late appeal in state court. Regardless, if Plaintiff wants to assert a claim for relief against the responsible individuals at the correctional institution for this injury, he needs to file a new, separate action.
